

Bonnie C. Morris

Our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, Bonnie Carlile Morris, returned to her Heavenly Father March 23, 1994. She passed away at the University of Utah Medical Center in Salt Lake City. She was 62.

30 Mar 1994

Born Dec. 1, 1931, in Heber City, to J. Giles and Avery Duncan Carlile. Married Bob Morris Jan. 11, 1950. Marriage later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple. Bonnie's first love was always her husband and her family. Especially did she love and appreciate her grandchildren. Employee of First Security Bank in Heber City for 20 years until her recent retirement. Active member of the LDS Church and served in many capacities including Relief Society and Primary. Member of Heber Valley Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary. She will be remembered as a very classy and gracious lady, who was kind, courteous, and charitable to all she associated with. She was a special friend.

Survived by her husband, Bob Morris; children: Robert and Billie Morris, Scot and Jan Lythgoe, Heber City; Craig and Debbie Probst, Midway; Scott Morris, Oceanside, CA. 11 grandchildren. Sisters and brother: Maxine Probst, Midway; Jolene DeJonghe, Littleton, CO; EvaLou Stewart, Salt Lake City; Brent Carlile, Cedar City. Preceded in death by her mother, father, and a brother, Jack.

Funeral services were March 25 at the Heber Sixth Ward. Burial was in the Heber City Cemetery.
